

Karl Schmidt-Rottluff: Picture "With Green Jug" (1960s) (Unique piece)

Product no.: IN-949666.R1

In a balanced arrangement, Schmidt-Rottluff presents a green jug alongside two wooden sculptures. The pictorial objects are modelled sparingly yet impressively.

Black ink outlines the contours and creates a link to Schmidt-Rottluff's more well-known paintings. His interest in visualising classical themes such as still life has repeatedly led him to create remarkable compositions.

Due to health reasons in the early 1960s, the artist had to give up oil painting completely and instead devoted himself more to drawing. The present unique piece dates from this period and is a wonderful example of Schmidt-Rottluff's naively expressive way of working.

Watercolour and ink on paper, 1960s. Signed, titled on the back. This work is documented in the archive of the Karl and Emy Schmidt-Rottluff Foundation, Berlin. Motif size/sheet size 50 x 69.8 cm. Size in frame 78 x 97.5 cm as shown.
