

Franz Marc: Picture "Riding School After Ridinger" (1913)

Product no.: IN-911472.R1

His woodcut "Riding School after Ridinger" leaves nothing to be desired in terms of dynamism and expressive power. On the contrary, the motif gains significantly in drama through the strong contrast of black and white. The title of this work can be interpreted as a homage to the Baroque artist Johann Elias Ridinger. Ridinger was primarily known for his graphics with detailed animal representations - especially of horses.
